MR. HANNA

DOESN'T LIKE THE ATTITUDE OF SENATOR FORAKER

Tells a Friend: "They Want to Smoke Me Out, But I Will Not Stand It."

Chillicothe, O., May 22.—In conversation with Colonel Entekin, revenue collector for this district, Senator M. A. Hanna said:

"I am very much dissatisfied with Foraker's attitude on the question of endorsing Roosevelt at the coming convention. It is almost malicious, Colonel. They want to smoke me out, but I will not stand it. My ambitions are not matters for discussion now. As far as I am able I have clearly and emphatically defined my attitude toward the Republican Presidential nomination. This coming convention has no right to bind the next convention to anything, anyway. The whole proposition is unfair and Foraker's stand was a wholly unnecessary one for him to take."

The shooting was at 800, 900 and 1000 yards. Mr. Winder made 612 points out of a possible 675. This is regarded as excellent shooting and there was rejoicing in the adjutant general's office over Mr. Winder's victory. Colonel Dimmick telegraphed his congratulations.

PARADE

Witnessed by Thousands and Centennial Celebration Ended in a Blaze of Glory.

Chillicothe, O., May 22.—Beneath an almost cloudless sky the marching men threaded their way through a multitude which numbered no less than 40,000 and thus, except for the fireworks and band concerts of the night, Chillicothe's celebration of Ohio Centennial came to a glorious close.

The whiz of rockets, the glare of red fire and the blare of brass, after the sun fell on the holiday crowd, were symbolical, more than anything else, of Chillicothe's jubilation over the success of a great undertaking already finished. The close of the forensic program was equally inspired with a spirit of genuine delight in the success of Ohio's hundred-year birthday party, when Bishop McCabe of Kansas, who was barefoot Charlie McCabe on an Ohio farm 50 years ago, sat at the piano and led the audience in singing the battle hymn of the republic. It was at the suggestion of Gen. J. Warren Keifer that this impromptu but appropriate song was rendered.

Yesterday afternoon the street parade moved from the city park at 2 p. m., and was reviewed by Governor Nash, Senator Hanna and other distinguished visitors from a stand in front of the court house. Among those who had seats in the front row were General Keifer, General Brinkerhoff, General Daniel C. Ryan and David W. Ankeney.

ZANESVILLE

Republican Convention Tomorrow is Expected to be a Very Lively Affair.

Zanesville, O., May 22.—There is tremendous interest in the Republican county convention to be held here tomorrow and the indications are that several stormy scenes are scheduled to take place.

Never before in the history of Republican county politics, was the interest among the candidates for the various nominations so keen and so apparently bitter as it is.

In the first place there are contests on for almost every nomination and this alone is calculated to keep interest up in the convention from beginning to end.

REFUSES

TO TURN MRS. M'CORMICK OVER TO OHIO

As Crime Was Not Committed in This State—Woman Jailed Again at Memphis.

(Advocate Telegram.)
Memphis, Tenn., May 22.—Judge Galloway refused to turn Mrs. Lizzie McCormick, charged with sending poison to the governor, over to the Cincinnati officers. He declared he could not honor the governor's requisition because the woman was not in Ohio at the time the crime was committed and therefore is not a fugitive from justice. He shut off the attorneys for the woman in the midst of their arguments and said: "That is enough, release the woman on habeas corpus, but remand her to jail to be indicted here."

(Advocate Telegram.)
Memphis, Tenn., May 22.—After a long consultation Thursday night, Congressman M. R. Patterson, detective Sweeney and Lieut. Renkert decided not to employ any one to fight the habeas corpus proceedings to secure the release of Mrs. Lizzie McCormick, charged with the murder of J. B. Fickler of Cincinnati. Patterson looked up authorities on all sides and said he could find no law in Tennessee where by Mrs. McCormick could be taken to Cincinnati. Sweeney and Renkert were also advised by former Attorney General Peters that it was useless to fight the case. Both officers therefore decided to trust to Judge Galloway the whole matter, which comes up today. If Judge Galloway decides against sending the woman to Cincinnati the Memphis police will issue another warrant and prepare to try her here for the highest degree of murder.

HE MADE $300 A MONTH BEGGING

New York, May 22.—Begging letters sent to well known New Yorkers have netted to Edgar Beck Neilson, said to have been cashiered from the Danish army, an income of $300 a month during the last two years, according to Special Agent James Ford who has caused Neilson's arrest.

Mr. Ford said that the man had three stereotyped forms of letters, one asking for work, another asking for money, and the third begging a personal appointment.

He was a Dane and an ex-army officer who had been driven to pawn his valuable jewelry and the time for redeeming these pledges had nearly expired.

Agent Ford says that three books containing the names of New Yorkers were found in the man's comfortably furnished apartment. Neilson's list of correspondents, it is said, included the names of George J. Gould, Andrew Carnegie, J. Pierpont Morgan, John W. Gaes, Hetty Green and Russell Sage.

ELKS' HOME

Roanoke, Va., May 22.—The Benevolent Order of Elks dedicated their National Home at Bedford City. There were fully 5,000 people on the ground of the Elks' Home at 11:30 when the exercises began. Philip G. Kelley, district deputy, of Richmond, presided. Governor A. J. Montague was greeted with much enthusiasm as he came forward to speak, and John W. Daniel the Lane Lion of Virginia, was given an ovation.

Jos. T. Fanning, chairman of the Board of Trustees, briefly told the story of the beginning of the Elks' Home, the work up to the present time and presented the keys of the building to George P. Cronk, exalted ruler of the Grand Lodge. Mr. Cronk made a speech, which was filled with poetry and an eulogy on Virginia women. The home was built in 1891 of Neilson purple granite, brick and shingles at a cost of $90,000, and for 10 years was used as a summer hotel. It was handsomely furnished at a cost of $30,000. All the entire outfit was purchased in last June by the Elks for $12,000. The structure commands a superb view of the peaks of Otter and the Blue Ridge mountains and also overlooks the town. It has a fine oak grove in the rear, and the grounds comprise eight acres, enclosed by a handsome iron fence erected at a cost of $2,000. Since the Elks have had possession some $30,000 has been spent in renovating the building.

The farmers of Russia own 35,000,000 acres out of 267,000,000.

FIRE

Destroyed Hugh Murphy's Home and Killed His Child—Others Were Injured.

(Advocate Telegram.)
New York, May 22.—Fire early this morning destroyed the home of Hugh Murphy in Richmond, S. I., and Laurence Murphy, his 10 year old daughter was burned to death, while other members of his family were injured by jumping from a second story window to escape the flames. ## 'T WAS A MAN Disguised as a Woman Who Killed Yeager, Declares a Cincinnati Detective.

Kokomo, Ind., May 22.—Detectives here from Cincinnati and Greenville, Ohio, working on the Yeager-Sutton murder cases, claim to have made the discovery that the supposed young woman who was in Yeager's buggy at the time the shot was fired was not a woman at all, but a man dressed in woman's clothes and disguised as a woman. No footprints resembling a woman's shoe were found near the blood pool, but men's shoe prints were distinct. It is claimed that instead of being two men and two women in the two buggies there were four men, two of them disguised as women. The officers are following this clew.

Logan Englis, Frank Bads and Wilard Bads were released from custody by order of Prosecutor Cooper. They established a strong alibi.

PRESBYTERIAN

General Assembly Opens at Los Angeles—Unusually Large Number of Young Men Present.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 22.—The one hundred and fifteenth general assembly of the Presbyterian church convened at Emmanuel church. But few of the several hundred commissioners were absent when Rev. Van Dyke called the gathering to order, and the galleries were crowded by visitors. The campaign for Moderator continued up to the hour of calling the assembly to order, when everything pointed to the election of Rev. Robert F. Coyle. Dr. Coyle is very popular with the creed revision element of the general assembly, which is just now in a strong majority.

A notable feature of the present assembly is the unusually large number of young men among the commissioners. Comparatively few of the clergymen who had heretofore shaped the policy of the church were in attendance. That is explained by the fact that the campaign for commissionerships to the 115th general assembly which will vote upon the final adoption of creed revision, was an exceptionally warm contest, and the younger element of the church won out.

Dr. Van Dyke called the assembly to order at 11 o'clock, and delivered an annual sermon, and, departing from the usual custom, wore a Geneva gown. He occupied more than an hour in the delivery of his sermon but was given the closest attention throughout. Great enthusiasm marked the close of the talk. Announcements were made by the committee on arrangements, among them being an order excluding from the auditorium all except commissioners, and the sessions from now on will be of a routine and business character.

EXCITED

Posses Searching for Man Who Committed Foul Crime.

(Advocate Telegram.)
Lawrenceburg, Ind., May 22.—Excited posses are scouring the country about Manchester station, northwest of here, in search of Anna Kaiser, aged 17, victim of one of the foulest crimes that has ever been committed in this county. Her hat was found in Tanner's creek today and her umbrella lying on the bank nearby, lead to the belief that she was drowned by a fiend who last night made a murderous attack on her father, who was escorting her home from church, and then it is supposed he carried her to the woods nearby. A colored man who was seen near Manchester station yesterday afternoon is suspected. Martin Kaiser, father of the girl was knocked down with a club and lay all night unconscious where he fell.

CUB BEAR

Presented to the President Out West But Mr. Roosevelt Declined the Gift.

Kalama, Wash., May 22.—President Roosevelt was given a bear cub this morning, but owing to the cramped quarters on the train the gift was returned with thanks to the man who gave it.

When the President's train was hauled up the ferry boat the bear was introduced. He was hitched on the tender of the engine latched with a red, white and blue tether to an evergreen tree that was planted there to give naturalness to the scene. The President said he would like a nearer view and the bear was brought down from his perch and given a few pats of the chief magistrate's hands. The bear did not seem to appreciate the honor, for he squaled dismally and made one attempt to bite the hand that caressed him. The President made a ten minute stop at Kalama and addressed the crowd from the rear platform.

Peculiar Case.

The Wheeling News says: A peculiar and affecting case has come to light at Bellaire in connection with the separation of Clement Smith and wife, who was formerly a Miss Bishop. At the time of the divorce the woman was decreed the custody of the 6 year old son. The child had been staying for a few days with his grandparents at St. Clairsville Junction and was sent to Bellaire Sunday in charge of a young man whose name could not be learned. Neither the young man nor the boy has been seen since that time, and it is believed by the mother that the boy has been turned over to her former husband, who is thought to be living in Newark, O. The case has caused some excitement, as the mother has applied to the authorities for aid. It is possible that if it turns out that Smith has secured the custody of the child legal proceedings may be instituted for his recovery.

ONE FUED

Is Ended in Kentucky Because Only a Single Party to It is Now Surviving.

Sergeant, Ky., May 22—"Boys, I'm killed; better give up," were the words with which John Roberts sought to end a feud of many years' standing. The Roberts and Gardner families have long been at odds, and a few days ago the Roberts side sent a challenge to the Gardners. They met at a "blind tiger," and indulged freely in liquor before beginning hostilities. When the shooting began John Roberts fell, advising his friends to quit. For 20 minutes however, the fire was kept up. Finally Flex and Wm. Gardner fell mortally wounded, and Will Roberts, the only surviving member of the Roberts family who was unhurt, has declared himself satisfied.

RARE OLD WORKS SOLD AT AUCTION

Boston, May 22—Some rare Emersonian and other rare books have been disposed of at auction here.

The most interesting is a copy of Woods' "Athenae Oxonienses," in two volumes, London, 1721, a representation copy from Thomas Carlyle to his friend, R. W. Emerson, with inscription by Carlyle. It brought $103.

Next in interest was Emerson's "Letters and Social Aims," first edition, Boston, 1876, for which $55 was paid.

The first edition of "Emerson's Essays," London, 1841, brought $5, and the second series, first edition, 1844, brought $8. A first edition of "The Conduct of Life," with a presentation slip from the author, was sold for $17.

FORAKER'S OPPORTUNITY.

New York, May 22—A Washington dispatch to the Herald is as follows:

Members of the administration who see no other possibility than the nomination of President Roosevelt next year without any contest whatever look upon the Ohio situation in its bearing on a direct indorsement with complacency. A member of the Cabinet said that the only possible result now was the presentation of such a resolution and it unanimous passage. He thought that Senator Hanna could not afford to allow his friends to oppose it.

Prominent Republicans now in Washington take the view that Senator Foraker has turned a very clever political trick in the attitude which he had assumed in favor of endorsing the President. With a Hanna candidate for Governor apparently certain of unanimous nomination it looked as though Senator Hanna would play no part whatever in the coming congressional and state campaign. The friends of Senator Hanna who gave out the information that the convention would not indorse President Roosevelt for nomination gave Mr. Foraker his opportunity. This he quickly seized and will now be a prominent factor in the convention.

A CAMPAIGN FOR REFORM.

One effect that the rottenness in public office under Republican administration is going to have, is that it will revive the necessity for a Democratic platform next year modeled after that of 1876, on which Samuel J. Tilden was nominated and elected. That platform called for reform in almost every paragraph. There is as much necessity for reform now as there was then, and it seems to be the consensus of Democratic opinion at the national convention that the cry of reform will be one of the issues in the next campaign. If the honest men of the nation, regardless of politics, could be made to understand the conditions at Washington in many of the departments, they would sweep the Republicans out of office on the cry of reform alone and with no other issue in the campaign.

FOUND HIM OUT.

A dispatch from Fremont says that the Republican caucus Tuesday night resulted in an overwhelming defeat for Congressman A. H. Jackson, who was a candidate for delegate to the state convention. In one of the strong wards of the city the Jackson ticket received only three votes. His opposition to organized labor is the reason assigned for his humiliation. He received only sixteen votes in the entire caucus. Jackson was elected to Congress last fall as the working man's friend, the cry being taken up at the expense of Congressman Norton, then a candidate for re-election. Mr. Jackson's then ardent supporters have since then had their eyes opened.

It is said that but for a mistaken idea on the part of Thomas C. Platt, Senator from New York, John D. Long, secretary of the navy, would now be president of the United States. In 1900 administration leaders had selected Long to be McKinley's running mate, but Senator Platt wished to "shelve" Governor Roosevelt by putting him in the vice presidential chair in order that the young man should not be made governor for the second time. Roosevelt protested vigorously knowing Platt's game, but Platt was too smooth, and with the aid of others, like-minded nominated the governor for second place. Just how much he now regrets having done so probably is known to no one but himself.

The Gallion authorities have promulgated a stringent order against throwing paper, sweepings and rubbish of any kind in the streets. To enforce such an order as this is the only way to keep the streets as they should be, as well as to aid in the prevention of disease.

Hanna is reported to be "tickled" over the way Herrick delegations are showing up over the state, but he is not saying anything about the resolution Foraker has prepared endorsing Roosevelt for 1904.

That is also a ticklish matter, but of a different kind.

If you are troubled with impure blood, indicated by sores, pimples, headache, etc., we would recommend Acker's Blood Elixir, which we sell under a positive guarantee. It will always cure Scrofulous or Syphilitic poisons and all blood diseases. 50 cts. and $1.00. For sale by Collins & Son.

THE STATE OF OHIO.

Is the fourth in the United States in population. Population, 1890, 45,365; 1900, 4,157,545—more than 91 times as large as it was a century ago.

Its area is 40,760, and the average density of population is 102 persons to each square mile.

It has four cities than exceed 100,000 in population, nine that exceed 25,000, and twenty-eight that exceed 10,000.

It sends 21 members to the National House of Representatives, and has 23 votes in the Electoral College in Presidential elections.

Five Presidents of the United States—both Harrisons, Grant, Hayes, Garfield and McKinley—were born in Ohio.

It has more colleges than any other state, and 99.51 per cent of her population can read and write.

There are 32,500 factories in the state, employing 350,000 wage earners. The wage earners receive $160,000,000 a year, and the average market value of their products is $850,000,000 per year.

There are 275,000 farms in Ohio, averaging 90 acres each, valued at a grand total of $1,200,000,000.

The implements, machinery and live stock employed on these farms are valued at $165,000,000.

Of the vast population of the state 80 per cent of the males over 10 years of age and 15 per cent of the females are engaged in gainful occupations.

Of the employed 30 per cent are engaged in manufacturing, 27 per cent in farming, 20 per cent in commerce, 5 per cent in professions, and the rest in domestic and personal service.

Of the population of the state 50.6 per cent are males, 49.4 per cent are females; 48 per cent live in cities and towns of over 2,500, and 52 per cent in the country; 97.7 per cent are white, 2.3 per cent negro; 89 per cent are native, 11 per cent foreign born.

Of the children 5 to 20 years of age 60 per cent are attending school.

Ohio ranks first in the manufacture of metal-working machinery, carriages and light wagons, agricultural implements and pottery, second in iron and steel and foundry and machine-shop products.

In regard to clay and earthenware Ohio's art pottery surpasses that of the rest of the world. One-third of all the sewer pipe used in the country is manufactured in the state.

LOVEMAKING LESSONS.

Novel Course in the University of Michigan.

SLY OUPID'S TRICKS TAUGHT.

Professor Trueblood, to Stimulate Interest Among Students With Spring Fever, Gives Instructions on How to Propose—Kneels Before Coeds and Pleads in Impassioned Tones For Their Hands.

The University of Michigan has added a new course to its curriculum, one that may best be styled a course in love making, says a special dispatch from Ann Arbor, Mich., to the Chicago Tribune. Professor Trueblood is the inventor of the novel scheme, and his course, which has been hitherto shunned as one of the toughest at the university, now seems likely to become the most popular study on the campus.

Ever since the spring vacation expired Professor Trueblood has been trying different methods of exciting interest in his class in order to reduce the ranks of the absentees from classes who had spring fever. A few days ago he hit upon the successful plan, and now the many visitors who attend his classes are the spectators of thrilling love scenes. Fifty times a day Professor Trueblood is forced to kneel before some maiden and show his pupils the right way to declare their devotion to their sweethearts.

"Put more life into your plea," he says. "Why, you don't show a trace of passion."

Then the awe inspired student watches his professor show how he used to do it, and then gets down again to rave and entreat the subject to be his alone. Each budding orator takes his place before a blushing maid, and no matter how smoothly the pair may have progressed in private the professor finds some fault with the public demonstration.

"No, kneel on both knees—now hold her hand, it impresses her more so," and the old professor again kneels and goes through it all over again.

First steps up the bashful student who simpers, blushes and stammers while he talks.

"Please, miss," he will say, "I love you dearly. Will you marry me?" For it is to one that he has enjoyed himself so much laughing at his predecessors that he has failed to observe even what Professor Trueblood considers the proper form.

"Oh, my," the professor breaks out, "the little you know about this business is astonishing!"

"Now, you wouldn't accept him if he couldn't do better than that, would you, Miss—?"

"Look, now. I'm tired of your not paying close attention. Get on your knees gracefully like this, you see."

"Reach over and grasp her hand with both of yours—both, mind—then make your proposal, but make it as a man, not as if you didn't half mean it."

"Raise your voice."

"If your subject doesn't suit, I will give you another."

"I did think men ought to be taught to propose, but I didn't know they were all as ignorant as you seem to be."

Again the poor professor is obliged to get down on his sore knees and pour out another plea for the maiden's hand. Then, at the end of the hour, the class passes out, only to make room for more of the orators, who must be shown. Professor Trueblood thinks he has to do more than his share of the work, but in spite of that he thinks he will be well repaid if he is able to smooth the road to success for many of his pupils.

"I don't think it is fair for him to make the boys in the class do all the work," said one student. "I wish he would make the girls try it once in awhile."

Professor Trueblood addresses few remarks of correction to the girls in their parts. He says he really doesn't know the best way for them to do. They must learn by the experience he is giving them.

WOULD FETTER COULD.

Iowa Ministers Plan Commission to Decide Who Shall Wed.

Hereafter Iowa youths and maidens who contemplate matrimony will be compelled to ask permission of a state marriage board if the Ministers' association of Des Moines has its way, says the New York World.

The preachers recently indorsed what they call a marriage commission made up of three men and three women physicians. This commission is to have power to regulate all marriages in the state and to say who shall and who shall not be married. The plan was first advocated by Judge McVey of the district court. The ministers will draft a bill embodying this idea and submit it to the next legislature.

They believe that such a board would restrict the divorce evil and suppress criminal, degenerate and pauper marriages.

Mr. Joseph Pomville of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so, and is a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by all druggists.

New Slang Word, "Stung."

An undergraduate is no longer "stuck" for a dinner, a seat at the play, a railroad ticket; he is "stung" for it, says the Yale Alumni Weekly. He is "stung" by the professor for his recitation and the bursar for his term bill; he is "stung" for a loan from his classmate, and so on without end. If the word "takes" as hard in the spring term as it did in the winter term the days of the purist will be one unending sting.

HAVE MERCY.

S. Frog's Poem on the Kishineff Massacre of Jews.

(Translated by Herman Bernstein, author of "In the Gates of Israel.")

Streams of blood and streams of tears
seethe and gush on Russian soil
Our old, our grave misfortune has spread o'er us its hand

Hear ye not the mothers' wailing hear ye not the infants' cries? The dead Are scattered on the highways, the wounded falling by their sides

Brethren, sisters! Mercy! Mercy! Grave and awful is the woe. Hasten
shrouds

To wrap the dead, hasten, give the living bread!

From afar one hardly feels the distant tears, the distant cries the distant
Misery—strangers' woe, strangers' blood
Oh, brethren, no!

A thousand hearts, a single pain, a thousand homes a single door, we Are all one martyred orphan, one sickly orphan we are all!

Brethren, sisters! Mercy! Mercy! Grave
and awful is the woe. Hasten
shrouds

To wrap the dead; hasten, give the living
bread.

Streams of blood and streams of tears
seethe and gush without an end;
Death is lurking at the window, famine knocking at the door

Our hands are faint for battle, our woe is painful, grave. Come with love
And consolation, O warm, O noble Jew!

Brethren, sisters! Mercy! Mercy! Grave
and awful is the woe. Hasten
shrouds

To wrap the dead; hasten, give the living
bread.

No man can cure consumption. You can prevent it, though. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma. Never fails.

HINDOOS FOR SERVANTS.

Domestics From India May Solve Problem For Londoners.

The domestic servant problem in London grows worse and worse, says the New York Herald. It looks as if in the near future suburbia would be without what is called general servants. The rapid increase of tea rooms and light refreshment rooms in London, with good wages, comparatively short hours and nights off, is attracting girls who on leaving school hitherto turned to domestic service.

The trouble is getting so serious that an aged old Anglo-Indian living in Clapham called a private meeting recently to discuss the trouble. India, he pointed out, had more servants of the class in England called domestic than a European community could give employment to. They were working for much smaller wages than that given in England. Why not offer inducements to Indian servants to come to London?

The suggestion was taken up heartily, and a committee was formed to go into the matter, so that the near future may see red puggered surtees and maharrattas and white turbaned deccanwallas taking the places of the fast disappearing, smart looking, white capped and aproned female domestics. Even clever Goanese cooks of Portuguese India may be brought to London, because cooks, for the same reason as ordinary domestics, are growing scarce.

DEATH

RELIEVES JOHN DRESHER FROM HIS SUFFERINGS.

Remains Taken at Noon Friday to Columbus—Burial at Logan Saturday. —Injured Tuesday.

John Drescher of 575 Reynolds avenue, who fell down one of the elevator shafts at the Real Estate Company's new building, corner of Fourth and Church streets, last Tuesday afternoon gave up the heroic struggle he had kept up against fearful odds and passed away at 5:10 o'clock Thursday afternoon, at the City Hospital.

Mr. Drescher was cruelly hurt, every rib but two on the right side having been torn away from the spinal column, his liver, lungs and kidneys being terribly injured. One arm was shattered. It was seen by the physicians attending him that death was inevitable, yet his indomitable courage and patient resignation enlisted their sympathetic interest and everything possible was done for him, but in vain. Mr. Drescher would have been 44 years old next June 30, and leaves a wife and two children.

He was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America, and is spoken of in the highest terms of esteem by those who knew him. Mr. Drescher was employed by the Kinkaid-Lisgett Elevator company of Columbus.

The remains were taken to the home in Columbus, by Undertaker James McGonagle at noon Friday and on Saturday will be buried at Logan, Ohio.

LITTLE GIRLS

FRIGHTENED BY MAN IN NORTH NEWARK

The City Police Who Have an Accurate Description are Hunting for the Fellow.

The people residing in the vicinity of Beech avenue, in the North End, were thrown into a great state of excitement Friday morning by the daring attempt of a vulture in human form to commit an assault on several young girls residing in that neighborhood. The report that such a crime had been attempted soon reached the ears of the police and newspaper men, and two reporters and Officer Herbert Atherton immediately proceeded to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fenchel, who keep a small grocery on Beech avenue, and whose 15 year old daughter, Emma, was said to have been one of the girls whom the man had endeavored to injure.

Miss Emma was found at home in a great state of excitement, and immediately related all the circumstances connected with the affair. She said that shortly after 8 o'clock Friday morning she received a telephone call, but that the phone did not work satisfactorily, and that she went over to Lieber's restaurant to answer the call. A man apparently about middle age, with a black mustache, dressed in dark blue clothes and wearing a white Panama hat and a red necktie, came into the place. He said that he was going to work at the glass house, and presented an order for his breakfast signed by the glass house people. She also said that while she was there the fellow approached her and began to take liberties with her, when she ran out of the place and hurried home, but that he followed her and was only prevented from coming into the house by her locking the door; the fellow then entered the grocery where he picked up a little girl named Alice Atterson, set her on the counter, kissed her and took other liberties. The frightened little girl escaped from him and started for home, the man following her. Seeing that he was going to overtake her she ran into a neighbor's house and appealed for protection. The fellow then started across a vacant field near the glass works. While going through the field he met two little girls, named Alice Farrow and Eliza Patterson, aged 13 and 11 years respectively, who were on their way to school, and were tossing a ball to each other. He asked them to toss the ball to him, and when the frightened children started to run he made a grab at the Patterson girl when she began screaming, frightening the man and he started off on a run, and the last seen of him was in the vicinity of the ice plant.

The police, from the description given, are certain that the attempted crime was committed by a well known Newark man, and they have been on his trail all day, but up to this writing have not succeeded in arresting him.

POLICE COURT

ACCUSED OF FORCING ENTRANCE TO SALOON.

Plain Drunks Got $5 and Costs—A Peddler Case Taken Up on Error. The State.

Officers Callon, Howard and Glasmeier, on Thursday night, arrested William Bolton and J. E. Hannigan, alias "Kid" Hogan, on a serious charge. It is alleged that the men were apprehended in the act of forcing an entrance to the saloon of William McKinley on South Sixth street. Mr. McKinley had an affidavit prepared making the formal charge.

Michael Dutt had a trial before Mayor or Crilly Thursday afternoon on a charge of peddling without a license, and was fined $5 and costs. His attorneys Kibler & Kibler, will take the case up on error.

The Mayor had several "drunks" before him Friday morning and fined each of them $5 and costs.

The Time For Recreation.

In this insistent age, when life everywhere is at high pressure, there is great need of emphasizing the importance—yes, the absolute necessity—of recreation.

What is work worth, especially brain work, when it is performed with jaded faculties, the energy of the brain cells being exhausted?

One ambitious of becoming a writer, for example, thinks he is saving time by forcing his brain beyond natural limits. He believes that what he does over hours is clear gain and that writing a chapter or an article after his day's work in an office, a factory or store is to his advantage. But sooner or later he will realize his mistake. Nature will not be cheated.

A man may profitably occupy his evenings in study or in some other occupation than that by which he earns his daily bread, but he cannot do a full day's work of any kind and then wisely attempt to do efficient work in the evening. A fresh brain is absolutely essential to the production of original thought. Even a recognized author who forces too much work upon his brain will soon see that his writings are not as much in demand as they have been and that his reputation is waning.—O. S. Marsden in Success.

Dolly Madison.

There are many stories told of the tact and kindness of Miss Dolly Madison when she was the first lady of the land. Her ready wit saved from confusion many a visitor to the White House who was not accustomed to the ways of polite society.

One of the most amusing of the stories is the tale of a country lad at a White House reception who was surprised in the midst of his enjoyment of a cup of coffee by the approach of his hostess. In his confusion the poor boy dropped his saucer and thrust the cup into his pocket.

Miss Dolly, who, although her eyes were keen and searching, never saw anything that it was not intended she should see, chatted away with her guest so pleasantly of the weather, the crowd, and, finally, of the young man's mother, whom she had known or heard of, that he recovered from his embarrassment and was soon at ease and ready to accept the fresh cup of coffee which his hostess ordered, despite a certain curious and unexplained bulge in his pocket.

Horse Horses as Pets.

The horses of the New York fire department receive more petting probably than any other horses in the world. In nearly every engine house each of the stalls bears the name of the horse occupying it, large black letters on aluminum marking the quarters of Tom, Harry, Dick or Major, as the case may be. The firemen are proud of their dumb friends and not only do everything possible to make them comfortable when they are off duty, but take pleasure in providing them with little luxuries and habits. Leaf sugar, nougat and other candies are purchased by one fireman or another in each engine house almost every day, and passively may often see the horses eating the sweets from the hands of their men friends.

All Was Well.

The old Bridewell burying ground in England is the resting place of Miss Creswell, so often mentioned by Charles II. dramatists, who died in Bridewell prison and left a son for a sermon to be preached at her funeral on condition that nothing should be said of her but what was well. The preacher got out of the difficulty rather neatly by saying: "All that I shall say of her is this: She was born well, she lived well, and she died well, for she was born with the name of Creswell, she lived in Clerkenwell, and she died in Bridewell."

Imports of iron and steel material for the month of March amounted to 112,666 tons, of which 53,941 tons was pig iron, as against 11,332 tons in February.

FARM LANDS COMPARED

Value of American Regions Over Canadian Northwest.

MANY RICH TRACTS PASSED BY.

A Correspondent Who Has Visited the New Lands of the Manitoba, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan Country Compares Them Unfavorably With Those Easily Obtained in Our Northwest.

I have just returned from a visit to the new lands of the Manitoba, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan country, in the Canadian northwest, says R. F. Cable in the Oaks. It is not true that 500,000 American farmers have moved to these lands during the last year, but from investigation I would say that some 12,000 have crossed the line to enter on these lands, and 7,000 or 8,000 more have visited them and made purchases which they may occupy later.

The investors to a large extent come from southern Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana. They have deliberately passed by numerous rich tracts of American land for acres in a foreign country, a country in which they must eventually become the subjects of a monarch if they wish to remain and engage in political as well as agricultural pursuits. They have chosen a climate which, I think, can be surpassed in innumerable sparsely settled regions of the United States. They have to a large extent isolated themselves from native land and friends. They have gone where transportation facilities are almost unknown, and they have large and profitable near by markets yet to create.

I cite these points because I cannot understand why Oklahoma, the Indian Territory, certain valleys of New Mexico, certain parts of Colorado, the Big Horn country of Wyoming and the Black Hills should have been passed over. I particularly mention the Black Hills because of the important connection of that section now with the great lakes and the Atlantic seaboard by a trunk line.

The Custer expedition in 1874 brought back to Fort Abraham Lincoln the definite information that the Hills contained silver and gold, fine grasses, timber, excellent water and were suitable for occupation by white settlers if the Indians could be induced to relinquish their rights.

Since then the Black Hills region has become the third greatest gold producing district on this continent. But aside from their record as being a district for the most profitable kind of gold production I was particularly interested in passing through the Hills to note their new industrial life and its growing relations with the rich and almost undeveloped country of southeastern Montana and northeastern Wyoming. Isolated as the Hills were in early history from communication with other parts of the nation, they have since commanded railway facilities that give them close touch with Omaha, Denver, Sioux City and beyond to Chicago, the great lakes and the eastern coast.

The result has been the introduction of the planing mill, the lumber yard, the marble workers, the cattle raisers and the farmer. I saw wheat in the vicinity of Custer equal in quality to anything raised in any other section of South Dakota or in the famous Red river valley.

I found comfortable farmhouses, plenty of water, good timber, especially in pine; vast deposits of natural marble and gypsum and a delightful climate. The elevations of the most prominent portions of the Hills offer superb shelter in the valleys, the passes and the plateaus. There is neither an extreme of heat or cold nor such conditions of weather that fields cannot be freely worked during the open seasons and flocks and herds be carefully guarded during the colder periods.

The population is decidedly American, both racially and in habits. Values of properties, either in land, mines or establishments, have not been inflated by a boom. Law and order is perceptible everywhere.

The change in the Black Hills from a barbaric state to one of a well developed civilization is one of the most rapid and remarkable ever witnessed in the United States.

I think the Hills worthy of study from every point of view by the farmer, the settler, the merchant and sightseer. I believe in their future because I have seen their wealth. It has been spread out before me.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. RELIEF FUND GROWS.

Newark Men Have Subscribed Exactly $100 for the Suffering Jews---Draft Will be Sent to New York Saturday Noon.

At 2.15 o'clock Friday the fund for the relief of the Russian Jews had reached an even hundred dollars.

Tomorrow at noon a draft will be sent to the treasurer of the general relief committee in New York City.

The money that has been subscribed in Newark for the relief of these suffering people has been raised through the efforts of the Advocate.

Mr. W. R. Hearst of Chicago, telegraphed on Wednesday that he had given $1000 and asked Newark to do something. A similar appeal was made to 400 cities and an organization has been perfected in each city.

The Advocate started the subscription list and has through its columns and in a personal way worked for the success of the cause and it feels much gratified over the liberal response that has been made. Subscriptions received up to Saturday noon will be included in the draft to be sent to New York tomorrow.

The office of the Newark Real Estate & Improvement company, ground floor, No. 14 North Park Place, was designated by the Advocate as the place where subscriptions would be received as this office is not only open all day, but during the evening as well.

Persons who desire to assist in this work are requested to send their subscriptions to the real estate office not later than noon on Saturday as at that time a draft for the amount collected will be sent by the Advocate to New York.

Today Mr. Peck went over the line from Akron to this city with General Superintendent Loeve and leaves tonight for Connellsville. Mr. Peck was born in Franklin, Ohio, and began his railroad career there as an operator on the "Big Four." He was later sent to Springfield as a train dispatcher. He was in Springfield a few years and was transferred to Indianapolis and promoted to be chief dispatcher. Two years later he went to Cincinnati as chief dispatcher and assistant train master. After Mr. Murray went to the B. & O. as receiver he brought Mr. Peck to the B. & O. and made him trainmaster of the fifth division of that road, with headquarters at Grafton, the division extending to Parkersburg and terminals. He was next transferred to Garrett, Ind., as trainmaster, his territory extending from Garrett to South Chicago, with the important Junction South Chicago terminals. After two years he was sent to Newark, Ohio, territory extending from Chicago Junction to the Ohio river. This included the very important terminals at Chicago Junction, Newark, Bellaire and Benwood. The Connellsville division to Cumberland, Md., was next assigned to him, the heavy freight at Connellsville making the position a most important one. He had also charge of the freight movement on the Fairmont branch which runs into the coal and coke fields.

His splendid service was recognized by his appointment to succeed Mr. Dunkle as the superintendent of the New Castle division, which extends to Chicago Junction, including branches running to Fairport and to Millersburg. Mr. Peck is said to be a hard working man, a thorough disciplinarian and a courteous gentleman. He has already made many warm friends in this city. It will be seen that he has had vast experience as a railroad man and those who know him best say that he merited his last promotion as a result of his record.

Conductors Return.

Conductors F. M. Harris, John Doyle and Cam Smith have returned from Pittsburg, where they were in attendance at the bi-annual convention of the O. R. C. Mr. Harris was the delegate from the Newark division, and Mrs. Cam Smith was the delegate to the Auxiliary. The next meeting will be held in Portland, Oregon, in 1905. Among the most important business of the meeting was the raising of the salaries of the Grand Officers. The salary of the Grand Chief was increased from $5000 to $6000; the Assistant Grand Chief from $2000 to $3600; the Senior Conductor from $2000 to $3000; and the Junior Conductor the same. The salaries of the Trustees and other grand officers were increased in proportion.

Mr. Elder Resigns.

W. P. Elder, traveling freight agent of the B. & O. with headquarters in Columbus, has tendered his resignation. Mr. Elder has been in the service of the B. & O. for over 13 years and is one of the most popular freight agents in the state. He has accepted a position of general manager of the Monroe Coal company, which is located near Dennison, Ohio. No announcement of his successor has been made.

Grant Ferguson Re-elected.

Grant Ferguson, formerly a well known B. & O. conductor of this city, now located at Salt Lake City, was re-elected grand inside guard of the O. R. C. at Pittsburg. The name was incorrectly printed as McPherson.

JAPAN Responded to Russia's Move Against Her in Korea—To Send Japs to Korea.

(Scripps-McRae Cablegram)

Berlin, May 22—The Frankfurter Zeitung today announces that Japan has responded to Russia's move against her in Korea by announcing her intention of sending 150 male and 75 female Japanese colonists to Korea by every mail steamer. Forty steamers a month ply between Japan and Korea. Such action by the Mikado's government would accordingly mean the sending of 10,000 subjects to Korea every month.

Russia's move, mentioned in the above dispatch, was announced in a dispatch to Berlin on Wednesday last. According to this dispatch the Russian government had forced the Korean officials to command Korean children to attend Russian schools, threatening death to all parents who permitted their children to attend the Japanese institution. Other regulations equally as glaringly anti-Japanese in tenor were reported as having been issued.

Loon Lake region has been swept and the Rockefeller mill is in great danger. Plattsburg firemen and an engine have gone to the mill to protect it.

CONGRESS

Will be Asked to Make up the Deficiency in the Postal Service—The Figures.

Washington, May 22—Congress will be asked at the opening of its next session to make an appropriation to cover deficiencies in both the regular free delivery service and the rural free delivery service of the postoffice department. Postmaster General Payne has announced that this deficiency now aggregates exactly $227,467, of which $105,000 is in the free delivery branch and $121,600 in the rural free delivery service.

"This is not the first time that a deficiency has occurred in the free delivery service," said Mr. Payne, "but I regret its existence. At the opening of the last Congress, Mr. Machen pointed out that without additional appropriations no more routes could be established beyond those ready to be installed January 1. He said, however, if Congress appropriated $500,000 for the purpose the work could be continued during the rest of the fiscal year. This appropriation was promptly made, but it is exhausted. Despite this fact, the free delivery office was going on increasing the deficiency, and if we had not taken steps to curtail the expenditures and suspend the establishment of routes until the beginning of the next fiscal year, the deficit would have been much larger."

When Superintendent Machen was asked about the deficiency in the Free Delivery Division, he said:

"The statement that a deficit of $20,000 was reported is correct, but there was no misrepresentation in the submission of that report. That deficit appeared in the regular monthly statement made upon May 1, and was absolutely correct at that time. But the additional deficit can be accounted for by the charging up on the books of the salaries of rural letter carriers appointed for May and June. There were quite a number of them, and their aggregate compensation figures up to a considerable sum. It was our intention as heretofore, to ask Congress to provide for the deficit in the regular deficiency bill."

Champion of Peace.

(Scripps-McRae cablegram.)

Vienna, May 22—Bulgaria has come to the front as a champion of peace in the Balkans. The new Bulgarian minister here has expressed a desire to arrange a modus vivendi with Turkey in an effort to alleviate the lot of the Macedonians by peaceful means. In addition to this, it is reported that M. Natchovitch, an experienced diplomat, will be sent as Bulgarian minister at Constantinople to carry on negotiations to this end with the porte. It is further stated that Prince Ferdinand will shortly go to Constantinople and personally see the Sultan.

Views on Statehood.

(Advocate Telegram)

Washington, May 22—Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock who devoted last month to inspection of Oklahoma and Indian Territory is opposed to admitting the two as one state. "Such a Union," he declared, "would be unfair to Indian Territory and should not be attempted. On the other hand the people of Oklahoma are entitled to statehood and there should be no delay in the admission of the territory with its present boundaries."

THE HUMAN LOCOMOTIVE.

A certain man, because he was so strong and heavy, imagined he was a locomotive. There was, he thought, no limit to his vitality.

He regarded his stomach as the firebox. All he had to do was to keep the firebox full.

He followed the Mississippi steamboat plan and crowded every old thing into his stomach. One day when he was pulling a heavy load the firebox didn't burn right, so the Human Locomotive stopped to investigate.

He found the flues choked, the firebox full of clinkers, and so stuffed with fuel that it couldn't even show a red glimmer.

Sombody told him to keep a clean fire with a good draught and feed it regularly, with only a certain quantity at a time.

He was further advised to use REXALL DYSPEPSIA TABLETS for the purpose of putting himself in first class shape.

He did as he was told and was soon able to pull and haul as well as ever. Besides he pulled less under a heavy load.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are absolutely guaranteed to cure all the distressing forms of Dyspepsia and Indigestion, or we'll pay for all the medicine you take.

Rheumatism

"THE PAIN KING."

Those who have ever felt its keen, cutting pains, or witnessed the intense suffering of others, know that Rheumatism is torture, and that it is rightly called "The King of Pain."

All do not suffer alike. Some are suddenly seized with the most excruciating pains, and it seems every muscle and joint in the body was being torn asunder. Others feel only occasional slight pains for weeks or months, when a sudden change in the weather or exposure to damp, chilly winds or night air brings on a fierce attack, lasting for days perhaps, and leaving the patient with a weakened constitution or crippled and deformed for all time.

An acid, polluted condition of the blood is the cause of every form and variety of Rheumatism, Muscular, Articular, Acute, Chronic, Inflammatory and Sciatic, and the blood must be purged and purified before there is an end to your aches and pains. External applications, the use of liniments and plasters, do much toward temporary relief, but such treatment does not reach the real cause or cleanse the diseased blood; but S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers and tonics, does cure Rheumatism by antidoting and neutralizing the poisonous acids and building up the weak and sluggish blood. It is safe and reliable in all forms of Rheumatism. It makes the old acid blood rich, and the pain-tortured muscles and joints are relieved, the shattered nerves are made strong, and the entire system is invigorated and toned up by the use of this great vegetable remedy.

If you have Rheumatism, write us, and our physicians will furnish without charge any information desired, and we will mail free our book on Rheumatism.

PEOPLE WHO CAN'T SLEEP.

Many people go to bed—not to sleep, but to think—to tumble and toss—to get up, walk about until tired Nature gives way and a few fitful hours of sleep are obtained just before dawn—a sleep that does not rest—a sleep from which one wakes weary and tired, wholly unfitted to take up the daily routine of household, shop or office duties. That condition goes on uncorrected for is almost criminal, when the well known, time-tried and tested powers of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills to give restful, natural sleep have been so fully proven in such cases.

Mrs. W. Bates of 1434 South Sixth street, Newark, Ohio, says:—"Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I know are excellent because they made my nerves steady—gave me strength and good restful sleep, three things I needed badly. Their action was rapid and more than satisfactory, and I am right glad in the face of the fine result I obtained that C. T. Bricker, druggist called my attention to the medicine." ### His Face Spoils Razors.

"Did you see the man who just went out?" asked an uptown barber of a customer as a swarthy individual left the shop. "Yes? Well, he spoils a razor every time I shave him, and he comes here twice a week regularly. He is a stonecutter, and the grit and dust are so imbedded in the pores of his face that it is like drawing a razor over the side of a stone. I always use the best tools I have upon him, but they are not stone proof, and a dull razor is the result when his beard is removed."

"He is a customer upon whom I lose money, and I am glad to say that he is the only stonecutter who favors me with his patronage. I often wonder how it is that he doesn't wince when the razor strikes a section of stone that is imbedded in his face and bounds off, but it is probably because his skin is so hardened that he feels no ill effects."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Some Difficult Tables.

Some of the excavations at Nippur show that the Babylonians had multiplication tables five times as long as those commonly used in schools. Most little men and women, for instance, do not have to go further than twelve times twelve, but the little Babylonian children, says Dr. Herman V. Hilprecht, who superintended the late excavations, had to go as far as sixty times sixty.

Numbered fragments of tablets bearing these "multiplication tables" have been found, some few of which go as far as 1,300 times 1,300. But these were evidently only for astronomical purposes. Those old astronomers seem to have felt hard pressed for time, and when they were calculating the distances of the new stars they found, and their size, they did not want to take the time to multiply, and so just referred to these tables in stone.

Y. M. C. A. Opening Saturday.

The finishing touches are being put on the Y. M. C. A. athletic field and everything will be in readiness for the grand opening tomorrow. Last night's rain has put the diamond in fine shape. Even another rain would do no harm, so that some fast ball playing may be expected in tomorrow's games.

As announced before, the Buckeye team will give a short concert in front of the Y. M. C. A. building at 1 o'clock. The four teams, Denison, Columbus, Maroons, Denison second team and the Y. M. C. A. team will then line up with the band, the Boys' Brigade and all members, who can get off at that hour, and headed by the Mayor, the officers of the association and managers of the teams in carriages, will march to the grounds on Eleventh street.

At 1:30 Mayor Crilly will formally declare the grounds opened, and will toss the first ball.

Denison's second team will play the Y. M. C. A. team a preliminary game.

At 3:30 the big game between Denison Varsity and the Columbus Maroons will be called.

All who cannot get out for the first game should try to get to the field by 3:30 to see the game between Denison and the Maroons.

Admission to the two games will be 25 cents. All cars running west on Church street pass the ground.

Tennis Season to Open.

Unless it rains hard between now and tomorrow the new tennis courts on the Y. M. C. A. athletic grounds will be in good shape to play tennis tomorrow morning. The courts are being rolled today and everything will be ready to stretch the nets.

AGUINALDO AS A CITIZEN.

Commissioner Ide Says He Does Not Mingle Much Among His People.

Commissioner ex-Judge Henry C. Ide, who recently returned from the Philippine Islands, when asked by the Washington correspondent of the New York Post how Aguinaldo has conducted himself since the close of hostilities, replied:

"Very well, as far as I have been able to observe. He lives quietly in Manila in a house directly opposite that of Vice Governor Wright. You are aware, of course, that he has taken the oath of allegiance and advised all his people to do the same. I have not heard of his taking any part in public affairs since his release last July, except to write a letter for public use, committing himself to the support of the Filipino movement for an independent Filipino church. We have no reason to believe that he is not loyally observing his oath. He does not mingle a great deal with his people. It is said that he fears assassination at the hands of the friends of General Luna, whom he caused to be assassinated. This apprehension was so strong at the time of his release that he asked General Chaffee for a personal guard, but the general assured him that he would receive just the same protection as all Americans and all other Filipinos, and nothing further. Pains have been taken to observe this general principle in all dealings with Aguinaldo. He has not been accorded any special distinction; but, on the other hand, everything has been avoided that could be interpreted as a degradation. I met him the other evening at a reception given by Governor Taft. He is treated by the American officials with entire courtesy, as is every Filipino of importance."

CANTATA

Presented at Taylor Hall Thursday Night Was Enjoyed by the Small Audience Present.

A small, but highly appreciative audience gathered in Taylor Hall Thursday night to hear the cantata of "King Rene's Daughter," as presented by the young ladies of the Shepardson Conservatory of music, under the direction of Miss Jennie E. Blinn. The fewness of those in attendance is more to be deplored from the fact that the music-loving people of Newark are rarely given an opportunity to hear an entertainment of such high excellence. The young ladies had been carefully trained for their parts and the interest was sustained from first to last.

The argument of the drama, adapted from the story of "King Rene's Daughter," is skillfully presented in song, leading the hearer through successive phases of dramatic interest, to the beautiful climax expressed in the triumphant outburst of the chorus "Rene the King." The opening chorus depicts the scene of the drama in "The Valley of Summer Flowers"; following, the duet by Miss Stranathan and Miss Hirschberg introduced the heroine, the king's blind daughter, the Princess Iolanthe, whose developing love for her betrothed, disguised as a wandering troubadour, forms the simple plot. The musical program was arranged in duets, quartettes and choruses, the singers entering so happily into the spirit of the narrative that their interpretation left nothing to be desired.

Especially deserving of mention was Miss Geil's solo, and also the chorus, "Sweet the Angelus is Ringing," in which the solo parts were taken by Mrs. King and Miss Anna Cross. Much of the success of the program is also to be attributed to Miss Blinn, whose skillful rendering of the difficult accompaniments united the whole into a pleasing harmony.

Crouch-Ashley.

Mr. Frank T. Crouch, a well known young man of this city, who is employed by the Moser & Wehrle company, and Miss Gertrude Ashley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ashley of Granville, were married on Thursday evening. The ceremony took place at the parsonage of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and was performed by the Rev. J. C. Schindel. The young couple were accompanied by Miss Swartz, a friend, and immediately after the ceremony they left for Columbus for a short visit. The groom has many friends in Newark who will tender him and his bride their best wishes.

TO MOUNT VERNON

Newark Knights Templar Went Thursday to Observe Ascension Day—Fine Banquet Served.

About thirty of the members of St. Luke's Commandery, No. 34, Knights Templar, of this city, went up to Mt. Vernon on Thursday to attend Ascension Day exercises with Clinton Commandery. Upon the arrival of the Newark Knights in Mt. Vernon they were met by a Clinton Commandery, and headed by a band were escorted to the Asylum where they met W. T. McLean of Sidney the Grand Commander of the Grand Commandery of Ohio Knights Templar and Judge King of Sandusky, the inspecting officer. A recess was taken until 4 o'clock, when the Knights marched to the Episcopal church where Ascension Day services were conducted by the Rector of the church, who is also a member of Clinton Commandery. The sermon was preached by Rev. John Hewitt of Columbus. The singing of the vested choir consisting of eighteen persons, was unusually fine, and the singing of the solo, "My Redeemer Liveth," by Master Reynolds, a twelve year old member of the choir, was a treat that was greatly enjoyed by all. After the services at the church the Commandery was escorted to the Asylum, where a sumptuous banquet was served. The Newark Knights returned home at 7:15 o'clock, being escorted to the depot by a detail of Clinton Commandery. Thursday night Clinton Commandery conferred the "Order of the Temple" on Hugh Bell of Utica.
